More about the Pro - (spiritual) and our Logan girl. I told him you was well when I met you last Gave him your thanks + accused him of having a letter from you. Which he denied manifestly + I believed him Our second meeting was something like the first - He was so polite + when he had gone through his manners took his seat as before with an expressive smile playing round his mouth. I knew something was coming + felt like I did not want to hear it + tried to avert it by asking questions which I did for quite a while but do all I could in my power the smile still remained. Finally I concluded to let him tell what it was I was silent for a few moments during which time he looked at me with a strange expression. The lustre in his eyes became strangely expressive + the smile left playing with his mouth until it caused it to spread all most over his face. ^{of strange objects} to look at. Very self similar, if there had been a ^{third} hand

Your friend married!
First have been and girl from glad of am not her husband
I am afraid she is Poor timber off hard she many? & where is she life? Try all money all life is as downy change of rock melt soon or done be left. She be

Dear Friend Kara

You expected was rec'd. with joy this evening and on opening it - The abundance of joy was frozen slightly. Instead of having love's waves unruled it was quite different. You were good to ans. so soon + your letter to all appearance would have been called very good, but to me it had a sting of something that seemed very unpleasant. I may have good reasons. Think I have. I was talking with Mr. Thompson to day on some sub. + it might have been that that caused me to fell so While reading your letter. Have to quit to night as the folks wish to retire Will finish in the morning Good Night -

Sunday morning
Friend Gora

I have just a few moments to write you which I will improve. You will think this letter like the other one written without a desire. It is not ~~either~~ was the other one. It is different with my writing to what it is with you. Sometimes when I commence writing in a strange place I hardly get one page finished till I am interrupted & may have to leave off altogether which has been the case in this & the one above mentioned. As to finding no pleasure in writing you. I can assure you is false. If that time ever comes (which I pray will never be) You will find in few words the idea expressed. I am not as clear in expressing my thoughts at times as I would like to be.

Which reasons I have are very good. Well we will drop this sub.

I am almost through here will leave here in the morning for Marsh valley. Have enjoyed the trip immensely had a fine time I spent some odd moments with Prof. T. I will tell you a part of our conversation it may interest you. I came here Thursday and he was one among ^{the} first I called on. He greeted me with one of his best smiles & entering his office (Have to leave - Have been gone over 3 hr.) This is how I get my letter written (piece at a time) he took a military position folding his hands over his stomach & look like he wanted to say Oh! How nice you look I am realy glad to see you After looking at me some time he took a seat & began to inquire of my health success

I feel poor
this morning
can't write
any thing
but it
at bottom 5 p.m.
Excuse the sentimental
Which came quite natural for it is not so good to give handle
White with a good long letter. It is a good girl
and behaved
very well
I return

The offle silence broken by Mr. T. by asking this question. Do you believe that a person can obtain the name of an unknown one by desiring to know the same. I replied. No. The idea striking me for the first time that he was a spiritual ist. My forcibly expressed negative seemed to check his free thoughts - He mildly said that he did. The thought struck me I could have some fun & learn something I said there might be something in it Noting the expression to be a favorable one I commenced my cunning work one of my long forgotten tricks was applied & with success. First found out the name, which was this, Harriet Tinsworth To accomplish my aim I had to use irony sarcasm & tell a fib now & then Which came quite natural & success bid fair to crown my aim

I asked him how he got the name & he said if I would promise to tell him the truth whether it was your name or not he would tell me how he came by it Of course I could do that with a clear conscience. He said after I had gone he was sitting in his chair wondering how & willing to find out your name. When some thing told him it was H. A. I told him it was not your name but I knew a lady in Denver by that name & she was pretty a medium Had attended circles where she was gave her description (knowing his ideal of a woman) I gave it correctly just to suit his impression He said he was impressed that that she was in Oxford I said she might be for all I knew That I had not seen or heard from her since I left D. Well he confided to me that he was a believer in spiritualism & begged of me not to tell any of his friends or acquaintances lest it might injure his business Will you & I could tell you much more of our conversation but this may be more than you care to read I had more fun with him than a little. He is going to send you a note again by me shall I deliver it? You may add me at Weston Idaho. Ever your friend Will
