Mr W.W.Ream

Dingle, Idaho, Jan, the 16 1910

Moscow,

Idaho.

Well Wesley ,

I sold 67 head of cattle last Thur, and got a good price & they weighed well Steers brought $4.50 CWT. & heifers $3.35 Cwt, Steers & ave, 919# heifers not so much The old black cow was not very fat but she weighed 1910# @ $3.50cwt, Well Wesley I have not sold the rest of the oats or any hay so needed the money for immediate use and have arranged at the bank for all the money you and Fabian will need & also the rest in this way. I will send you a note signed and you can fill it out for what you need and sign it and send it to the bank and have it put to your acct, and as they come due I will take care of them, I will start the baler this morning and will try and sack the oats this wk, Every thing is looking well and we have had a fine winter so far just one fall of snow about a wk, ago about 6in, Bleighing is not very good Am unloading a car of coal to day and have to take wagons,

WE are all well and send our best wishes to you and Fabian

I am quite busy this winter Mamma and I are thinking of taking a trip to Boise for a few days , Will let you know if we go. Write as often as you have time and can to it .

Yours As Ever W.D.Ream
