Dear Mother -
I find it hard to write anything at this time. I have waited a few days but it isn't any easier. I am sorry I can't be with you now.

We all know Dad did all he could for all of us in his eighty years all we can hope is that we shall meet again. This is bound to happen to us all sooner or later. The comfort we get is in the hopes of a future meeting -

Please be brave. Be sure that I shall try and get home before long.

I want you to know I love you more than ever -

Gabian,
