Dearest Grandmother,

Merry Christmas!

Well, here I am in Iceland
Saturday I thought I wasn't going to get on the bus, but they finally let me on. The bus was not loaded. It rained practically all the way up here. ⁵Hardly
I stayed in Salt Lake City.

I got home last night. Helen was having a ~~surprise~~ party for Mr. Winters, the superintendent of the high school.
Uncle Warren did not go to Kentucky. He is here now, but is leaving today and going back to camp young for Christmas Day.

The folks are pretty well except Helen who has the flu. The girls aren't out of school yet, not until Thursday. We have a beautiful tree. Neddy reaches the ceiling and is just perfect. There isn't much snow here and it isn't very cold.

I hope you have a nice time this Christmas.

Give Aunt Ida & family and Uncle Kenneth and family our love.

The family joins me in wishing you a very merry Christmas.

Love
May Ida
