Dearest Grandma

She are all thinking of you and hoping your Christmas will be very happy. She will miss Jean but we are glad he is there with you instead of at war. She have all been so worried about the folks in the Phillipines but were very glad to hear they are O.K.

I sent you a fruit cake today hope you enjoy it. It would be better if you dipped a cloth in wine or fruit juice and wrapped it in it for a few days. I have had it wrapped in a cloth dipped in wine for about two weeks.

Lots of love to you,
Helen.

Dear mother,

How it is another Christmas. The time surely does rush by. We had hoped to have two or three rooms finished so that we could be in the new house by now, but things did not work out. Now it looks like it will be spring before we get in.

We have not had an awful lot of winter here yet. There is not enough snow for sleighing yet. It keeps threatening to storm but does not make much headway at it.

Well we are in war again and it looks to me like a long one. All we can do is hope for the best, and that best is not too good. Such conditions have surely upset the lives of every one, especially the young people. I hope you are all well and that those in the P.O.'s are not in too much danger. Love, Wesley and Norma
