My Dear Paul:-

I was disappointed when I learned you were not coming Wed. morning, I had two disappointments first - that you were coming and so soon after you left. We had all arrangements made to meet you at L. A. so the second disappointment, which was a good one we were thinking you were coming to soon, ^{2nd} the delay seemed the right thing to do. That the surprise about your last trip. Butch said you were a braver do you ever know when you come I hope we have an other surprise ^{3rd}. That is this that you are well, looking fine & feeling good. We sure will be glad to have you with again with a brighter future for you. We hope no bad disappointment - come with you. I think you've had a hard enough to do for all time. Please holding good. That's for you. That you realize all you wish for and expected. How for a little more. Leonard ^{3rd} & Edie were for Supper last night came to see you when here. We told them you were coming Tues. & be here Wed. so they will come again soon. Butch got us out of bed at 12.30 last night - to say good by and sure appreciated it. Ida did not go to sleep till 5 this morning.

Mama well party well but, for a cold which is getting better, papa is doing well at school is on the board will his studies, acts like a working man & seems to enjoy himself.

Mrs. Wright visit Rickie everyday, and he is doing well. Ida is sure glad to get home every night, she does not enjoy school as she used to, if it was not for the ore there would be no teaching. She sure hates it.

Bob seems to be gay & full bright time then going to the school. Lisa H. wanted to go to school but nothing doing. I think he is beginning to sense a change & does not know to manage it. There seems a cloud rising in the horizon which may mean a little to him when the condition changes, which I believe some come from indications so far so good.

Bill & Ethel's next we will see you in LA and I hope feeling fine. Give my love to Milton & Helen & baby, also Doug, Lina & Kiddie.

With much affection we will be waiting your coming home. It will good to have you here it seems a long time since you went.

With Love from Will,
