Dear Mother,

I should have written you long ago but the days slip by so fast many things are just not done. I get much news from Ruth and Dad and knowing that you are well and enjoying life helps to take away the necessity for direct correspondence.

I enjoyed your letters very much and hope you will write some soon. You know that I have love and good wishes for you always and if I do not write it is not because I do not think of you often.

Now be a good girl and come up this summer and I will see you then.

Love and good wishes as always
Your loving son
Kenneth,
