Dear Prof.

I don't understand the significance of T's friend "Bilby". Please expound yourself. Of course I wouldn't take it as "ret. serv." Is there anything in those terms of endearment? As for that girl you are having such a time with: watch or she will get you! Ha! Ha!

Tell I guess we have got you skinned some on the weather!! The snow is gone and the roads are dry and dusty. I walked into town three times last week (which is about 2 miles each way) without rubbers, ^{and} there are no sidewalks over half the way. Its such nice weather that I have got the spring fever and got it bad!!!

It is far into the city that I havent a steady girl there. I cant go walking with any here at the Foot.
And as for the lady teachers when they object to me taking any of the girls out: it will be a long time before I will take one of them. The old maid Watson got kinda peared, because I cut her one night when she expected me for her partner on the sleigh-ride—
And I Cut Her!! I cut her because she wouldn't let one of the girls go with me, before that. Oh such as life without a wife!!!

Did I tell you about some Valentines I sent out? Well I am laying low from the effects thereof: to escape the peril of "womans wrath." I have been within a few inches of the ignominious finish; brought about by the working of such powers as
