

P.S.

I've got to be patient^{er}
+ not waste paper.
Wed., Thur., + Fri we get out of school to go to the clinic in "Cokey".
It's going to be fun
but I really have got to practice. Roma

Hello D.E.,

How about a little faster action next time? How it's been I don't know how long since I wrote you + never a word from you. How was getting worried cause it had been so long since you had written. Then your letter came to say for Dad; you didn't even say boo to the rest of us. Why don't you sit down right now + write them a big fat letter?

Excuse the slight game + change of ink. I was down to 2 angles + they came home - earlier I had gotter home in age, only 12:10. They are going to camp in the morning.

P.P.S.

I could go on paper + paper, but it is getting late + besides if you who ever at all. I must have all tell you about our but not in writing. This one's not in so Rita's not in so Rita's not in so Rita's not in so

What do you think of my ration? It reminds me of our garden. Daddy planted part of it about a week ago + Friday it snowed 6 in. It is all gone now, however, + we are wading in mud clear up to our knees.

Do you remember "On the Beam" that we saw last summer? Helen wrote one quite similar to it "Military Fantasy" + put it on a week ago Friday. It turned out really OK. A lot told her it was the best thing of the year, including the school play "Little Women". I mean Mrs. Miniver's Little Women is what one of the wads in Belle put on.

I started my formal today. I'm just in love with it. Is there any white satin or taffeta (don't laugh too hard at my S.P.) a slip out of? There isn't a thing up here. Write right back + tell me what they put me in - Only 5 more weeks of school!

Your letter to Helen was like reading a story only to find that it was a continued story + part II was lost. Please finish it. I'm dying to know how you are making out with Tall Paul + Hanson. Remember if you don't write your W. PRONG.
LOVE,
N.S.
