

I got this & I was too lazy to go searching for some more so how about quinning & bearing
it.

Well honey, I do hope I get to see you soon, so until then I shall say "so long".

Love,
Jwen

Dearest Mary & Dai:

Hi there - how are you?

I'm now working - I started last Wed. but I have a snafu
job. I'm secretary at Automatic Barbers Co.. I have one of these jobs where I only have to go to work 5 days a week - from 8:30 to 5. I can sleep till 7:30 &
make it easy.

I only saw Baulah when I was home for Xmas. I left the 26th so I didn't have much of a chance to do anything hardly, except visit with the folks.

I don't see much of a chance to get over to Long Beach this Sun. but I'll see if I can arrange it for the next week. Come in to L.A. & see me if you get a chance.

I got hit by a car this morning so I am now running my business along. I was getting off the Street car & a car hit me & knocked me flatter than a pancake. Skinned my knees & legs, the toe rest of my big one must have been sprained cause it sure hurts. It skinned my right hand & bruised my right hip. The guy didn't even stop to see if there was anything wrong with me. so I hobbled on to work.

Do you hear from Mary L.? I haven't even the slightest idea where she is at. Do you know? I saw Norma Jean in Logan about a mo. before Xmas & I saw Jean in Salt Lake about the 13th of Dec. I didn't have time to talk to her tho. It was mainly just hellos & "good-bye".

I'd like to go shopping tomorrow but if I do I'll come home broke so I guess I won't.

We went to Saks Fifth Ave Shop last nite - gee whizz talk about expensive - only $35 for a little ol. blouse & etc.

Does this stationary give you a headache. it sure does me. but that's all they had when
