

were here to ride it with us. I wish I could skate then I could pull the girls on the lee. I want to learn how.
Another thing I got was a five year diary, ^{plus} dress, 2 prs. stockings, pants and a lot of other things.

It snowed yesterday. But today the sky is as clear as a bell and beautifully blue.

Thanks a million for helping Jean send the box with all the nice things. We know you are behind it and had your hand in it all.

We all send lots of love to you all down there.

Affectionately,
your niece
Helen.

Dear Aunt Ida,

Thank you for the figs and dates. They were surely good.
We all liked them. Aunt Mabel said she would stuff here with nuts.
I don't think that Aunt Norma would have time to do anything with hers because the kids were stuffing them down. When we went up they were having a good time with their presents. Aunt Norma told them to save that parcel until afternoon to have something to open then but no. Before five minutes were up both packages were open and their contents sampled yes more than sampled.

P.S. We don't know your address so will send it to 127.
H.M.R.

I would like to make chocolates with ours but no matter what we make I'm sure it will be good.
Thanks again.

Don't you think this stationary is the nicest thing Jeon could possibly have sent?
I certainly did. And Mary Ida and Hazel Dawn were as thrilled as I was. They all looked so very pretty wrapped up.

You know Aunt Ida I think that hanging up a sock is the nicest part of Xmas. It is really more fun than anything.
Do you do it? We never miss.
I stayed up a while later than the girls and helped Saint Nicholas.
It's great fun. We got so many nice things and had a lovely time this Xmas.

Mother has told me how sweet B. Lee and Ricky are now. I would love to see them and know B. Lee. I know that I would love her. Most any baby appeals to me in more than one way. I wonder what Santa brought them. I'll bet it was a lot. Kiss them both for me.
I wonder if Ricky remembers me. But I suppose not. It would not be likely. But I love to think he does.

Due Sirrine (you remember him) comes over here with Ruth we play rook and have a good time.
The other day we roasted marshmallows and played games. We had a lot of fun. This Xmas we got a new sleigh I wish you
