Dear Mather Beam your letter ^{of} yesterday. I wish I were as good a correspondent as you or ~~it~~ ^I mean well, and do love to hear from you. So does Mitchel and ~~I~~ ~~know~~ he says every day, "I must write Mather." I ask him to write you a short note ^{this a.m.} and put in ^{with} "this," my note but he hurried off because Kenneth came for ^{me +} the vaccinating needle. ^{He has} ~~and~~ a sick ^{with legs} calf paralyzed, M.A. Chubb is Black-leg, so he rushed off to see what he could do for it. ^{+ good gift to feed} So that is the way it always goes. I imagine it was the same when you were here on the ranch. It must have been. I never can plan on a thing, so I have just quit trying. I am in a hurry to get this to the P.O. but should rewrite it as I notice plenty of mistakes. you will get it as if I mail it now, so won't do it over and please excuse ^{mistakes}
I sent you that page. that day and meant to write a note inside. but Momie came ^{over} and read it, then ^{she} sealed it, so I didn't ever get around to writing. So that is why. ^{no word} I thought the Crckett girl may be some relative, she reminded me of Maria so much. ^{by her picture} and too she is living in Long Beach & I thought you may see her at Church. She ~~was~~ ^{is} Mrs Ella Crckett's daughter & I believe of Pleasant Grove, Ut. Did you notice her announcement? That is why I sent it. I sent ^{it} the page as there were lots of Logan newspapers. We were sorry I da' has been sick. I believe she is trying to do too much & she must take it a little easier. She isent as young as she was a few years ago. She has lot of responsibilities. We got a nice ^{mas} card from Beulah in Jan'y and I thought she would be coming to U. S. A. so dident write her. although I always think others write her & my little pitiful notes would ~~the~~ ^{prove} silly to her. We Lovens had very much snow this winter about 8 inches the deepest here. Has been thawing since Jan'y. has been snowing a little too. along It has been quite warm comparing other winters. I must hurry to the P.O. & have written this in such a rush

Lovingly Mabel.
