At Home 7. P. M.
Dear friend Will -

I recd you a long letter yesterday for it was Sunday & I was at school. I on the sabbath. I was at school I recd your letter & was glad to it. I was at school & it was your letter. I was at school at school. I was at school from you. I was at school pleased to get your letter you will always write often The work at school is a little when I get a letter from you. I take great pleasure in writing to you even when I am too tired, to do anything else. I won't try to write to you. I have other work to do tonight but I feel too tired to mean. Besides teaching I worked two or three hours fixing up blinds in the school room & fixing the desks, work that I had spoken to the trustees to have done but they had failed to see about it. Then I sat a good while after school & have a letter from you on my mind. I don't know how I went down for your letter. I am so disappointed. I think I shall have a nice little letter this time. It will be a fine one as work. Well, I did not mean that getting married is an even more importance. I remember the remark I made & can see how it is more likely to be read with

I should think you would come down after you get the boarding done; but I cannot if you
don't come
to do so, don't.
I'm ready to think I shall not be dis-
pleased if I should see you before
long.
Y<sup>rs</sup> affectionate son, in Oct. as possible. All it was possible to put it till the very last day & it is yet possible for it to be in Oct. if it were to be on the last day; but I always thought that Nov. would suit you better than Oct. Well, I do not want back the month - It is enough back the day. I would even put that off on you too if you would set it, but I suppose that would be out of the question. I suppose it can be all ready if necessary before school closes. It is inevitable it need be but little late as as if I had not taught.

Yes I will only have two months of school - that seems a very short time. I hope he will not have an early winter.

that meaning than any other, but I did not see it at the time. — I only meant that it was unimportant <sup>whether</sup> I teach or not. & I did not think when I made the remark of it apply<sup>ing</sup> to the other event. & you must excuse the remark.
I do not think you could think it a more serious step than Lob.

Well it is to dark for me, see the lines & supper is ready as I will finish this up.

I have had supper as will finish writing.

Will you speak or write if it is my fault that our trip will be so late in the season has it will not be as pleasant. I do not feel as if it were my fault for you told me to put it as late
