Dear Brother Wesley,

The meat arrived in good shape and it surely looks nice. It seems mighty good to see such meat again. Many thanks for the same. It had it Sunday & it tastes mighty good too. Whenever you let me know what it is I'll square up with you.

I hope you are all well and happy, and not taking life too seriously.

The crew is feeling fine. The children are all over their colds & are normal again.

Lucile's father & mother arrived tonight &
they are in the other room talking & should be in bed.

I've every body tells for us & if you see Mitchell
tell him I'm going to write him in a day or so.

Thanks again for the nice suit.

Sincerely yours

Douglas.

Dear Mother & Dad:

Sunday is Mother's day - and Dad's day too also. And we all join in wishing you both many happy returns of the day.

We are none of ^{us} good nor great but we hope that our children will not be any worse than yours have been.

Today I am taking Forrest & Marilyn to S.F.
on a little business trip. I forgot to write this while on the boat so am attempting to scribble
a note on the street car & I hope you are able to read it.

As it will be no now & barring accidents,
we will leave sometime next week and will be seeing you ere long.

Best wishes to you both again & take the other shells for us.

Lovingly yours kid
Douglas
