

Please write
Soon & often
I hope that man will hurry & send you a photo.
Correct all
mistakes
8.30 o'clock
P.M.

[IMAGE]

[IMAGE]

having a sham fight with guns, when the third one stepped in between them, & said I will stop this fight. (in plays when his gun went off & shot one of the other boys in the heat of the ear killing him instantly.
Well Nora I will be twentyone next Friday, & I guess I will have a little party, I wish you was here.

You must excuse these blots as my nerves are not very steady too night. I have not noticed any mistakes in your letter. Please send back all the improper words. I will have to close as I have got to study hard to night. Yours Truly C.R. Clarkson

Big Cottonwood.

Jan 30th 1883.

Miss Nora E. Crockett

Dear Friend Nora

Yours received with pleasure on the 29th Inst. I was glad to hear from you. And I had a good laugh, when I came to those mistakes. I am so glad you proposed this, for I like to be told of my faults when it is done in a way to teach. I believe I would like you for a teacher. I get along first-rate at School, making mistakes once in a while of course, But "by mistakes we learn"
We are having some very bad weather here now, it has been raining ever since yesterday morning. & the mud is not quite knee deep, the water is running down the road in streams.

Yes I wish that I could take you a sleighriding.
If you was to see the rest of my Photo. & you did not know me, you ^{doubt} would think it some dunnishman. I never saw such looking things. The one I sent you was about the best there was.

I am very sorry to hear that the Smallpox is so bad in Logan. You had quiet on adventure Sleighriding, when the horse got over the tug.

As for that Book I will try to get it the next time I go to the city.

I have just been looking over your first letter, & I can see now that you did not refer to me, so I will ask you to excuse me for thinking you did,

Wedens 31st As the mail does not go out untill too morrow. I thought I would finish writing to nig ht. Yesterday at school one of the boys (about seventeen years of age) was fooling with a small pistol & shot himself in the hands.
I heard to day that it cost him ten dollars to have the ball extracted. Another case happend yester day. South of the 2nd ward, Three boys were out hunting ducks.
When ~~one~~ ^{two} of of them proposed