

Good letter
River high enough to swim a horse.

I sometimes wish I had taught last winter. I had a letter from the B daughter the same day I got yours and she said that they had two schools a Mormon & a Gentile school. she said they all wanted me to teach. I was mad because I did not. her mother (the Bishop wife) said I cracked my reputation to with her by not teaching. That is the way the world goes make a good name & loose it by not being every body's dog. I found it very difficult to teach a mixed school, but I got a long well. Another winter I may teach. I don't know what I will do yet. I will not write a long letter this time for fear you may have others more interesting & would not wish to hear so much softness for this quarter. Correct mistakes & put in the punctuation marks to please yourself and write soon is my request

My dear friend
yours of the 14 at hand and glad to hear from you. (As I always am.) This expression had some correct in it: Your welcome letter seems more interesting than ever. I would like to have them as often as you can afford to write I will be very busy for some time and may not get my mail regular. As I will be traveling most of the time. If you should be a little late getting an answer just think that it is forth coming and wait with patience. That's a good girl. I know you will: I would like very much to see you & have a long talk with you. & I think you would like

I have been hauling implements from Montpelier this week just got them home to day, it has been storming almost all week. We had to boat every thing across the River. and it was not a pleasant job either. The river will swim a horse most any place.

The snow is not all gone yet but going fast. people are driving to the mountains every day. I am very busy but still I can find some time to read. I am nearly through Little Dorrit I don't like it as well as Copperfield or David It is as you say, a odd book & something fascinating about it. I can't find time to read as much as I would like time seems to flit astonishingly soon be an other year in the past and very little accomplished. as I can see, soon to go the way of all matters and find hands with the endless chain passing ^{to the} ~~the~~ Yes the kiss was a very nice. (would have been better if received from your lips) I am very sorry that Archie will have to have another operation performed.

What is the cause of it? do you know?
Does he ever say any thing about it?
What does your mother & father think now? Do they talk to you much about me? I think you might have written me what your opinion was about me. How provoking you are some time. You know I can't come down or over for some time yet & I feel somewhat interested to know what your opinion is. good or bad I would like to hear it in your next.

I am not as well as I would like to be. this country does not agree with me. I feel very uncomfortable now. Hope you have a good time with your last term of school for this year are you not glad it will be out so soon?
