

Unhappy days & unhappy hours
I've thought & thought & thought I've thought of this one and one
And wondered if you'd ever

Something would whisper and tell me if I could it - That you will wait

I can't fill this page so here I'll quit and sign my name

Miss Mrs. C. C. C. C.

one week ago yesterday I got your last. I have looked it over & felt like to write but now I can't. As usual I write you this afternoon. I finished I had something to do and was about to go to bed can't think of anything to write to you. I'll fill this sheet and see if it will go long with my calls. The Law having been had we attended to some things. I'll give you the - Not a word of what enough to tell that we have seen and. Quaker are not different to what I remember to I don't think I will ever be able to content in it. Take an account of its seasons. Chil settlers tell me they never new of such a winter or as we have had this year.

Now I can't think of any thing to write that would interest you. Will be home next Friday if I can well. Will see you before you get this and
say. I will bring you
the Life of James. St.
Crisfield. I am reading it myself. Entitled it very much. and think you will too. Why have you
not written of your travels have! Our letters are so far between. That I sometimes think you have forgotten yourself. I have not heard from you for long. Posted you one last Monday. I rank be going to 1st of October. in a day or two. I will be from you tonight.

If he does not I shall be sadly disappointed. I shall be
a long conversation with you
go? Have not heard from you for long. I will be

Only had a card from (my sister) in the last week week. Your wife is a regular correspondent & you fellow feel to reach me up.
It may be one my account to that I do not get the
