Dear Daughter

I seat my self to answer your letter
which I have not answered. But will take time to answer
to night well we are looking fore Bill Back Jim roab and told me that he was coming back this month
and we lock fore you

so I hop he will do well and lik it
and save his money
and baby. he will do Bettes when he comes Home. Well
This is all fore this time Hoppring to hear from you soon
from - Yours
Mother

M. E. Ream.

Wont You com Back
 and See us once more
 Be forgit whar we
 live Bell Mosa
 thas is not nothing
 said hear this winter
 know come nose know
 way. nothing to feed our stock on this winter
 if we had raisid a good crop we and Pau
 was coming out this winter But we cant come know. But will look fore. We L
 and you Back.
 Jim wrote and told us that you had quite a snow out there

We hant hope know
 snow Back has yet
 But it is cold enough to snow well Jim is in the mill yet I suppose he wrote and said that he liked it so
 awful well.
 I hop that he will stay with it he wrote
 and said that he was saving his money.
 I hope there will be wood not do that has But he could not get along with much that wood
 quarrel all the time
