Dear Anna

Did not get to finish your letter this morning & will complete it now.

Have been plowing this afternoon & like it very much. It seems to give my thoughts better than anything I have done for some time. Will have 2 acres plowed this fall I bargained for a man to take me the same & he has it almost set done I will soon have the deal for one quarter & at present all bids fair for a comfortable home for us. I have acquired it by the sweat of my brow. Will fill the scriptures to the letter

Just out - for a while but don't count them on you will not be able to start of the one taking of the series of the idea
I'm sure
Will

My Dearest
Friend Anna

In writing you had the morning I forgot to enclose your picture as I had intended. but for getting I will send it in this one Just finished writing 40 postal cards & do not feel much like writing you a long letter & you may not care much for reading it either as your Cousin - takes up so much of your time (I mean German lessons) of course I do not expect the other fellow - Centime - I should say - taking a part of your time if he enjoys it as well as I do. You enjoy yourself as well as you can but don't fail to write to your Will frequent & long letters. So I look for them with anxious eyes & wonder if you have a very long lesson or not that keeps you from writing. T. L. says that the next time he goes to L. with me he is going to show me down - seems like I have quite a few opponents in the field. & I fear some of them not that you & I will prove untrue but somehow like they will do me no good in what way I can't tell & Heas M. D. written yet

My eyes are getting dim & I want to go to rest my heart wants to do like wise & with a curious feeling will close for tonight Goodnight Will to God Would give one year of my life if I could see you & kiss you - my arms & drink in one unassumed look from those eyes of yours - I wish I could! I wish I were near what love & kindness must be till to night - I can't describe my feelings they are so queer I will take a walk & go to bed & see if I can't get up feeling better in the morning & I finish your letter Good Night

married lady I ever met with. She is not like Emma. I could see but one trait that put me in mind of her & that was the anxious look in her eyes when she was interested. Emma's eyes are large & not quite so dark, & not so large as Lizzie only weight 100 to 110. at any rate they are sisters we need not be ashamed of. I was quite a while studying Lizzie when I was there.
I don't think she noticed me if she did she did not express it - I love the place they live in. Think it hard to beat. more happy

If you appreciate it as much as I have enjoyed getting it for us I will be doubly recompensed.
It may seem rough to you at first sight - but you must remember it is made from raw material & not gathered in a day.
I'll show I fear I can't get down as soon as I expect to, on account of my horse.
He is not well yet but improving rapidly. I fear he will not be as good as he was before he was hurt. In all probability I will have to come by Soda Springs & may go to Mahad for a week or more but you have my love with you if it is worth anything to you. I had made arrangements with Mr W. G. Kimball to meet him at Soda & take a ~~short~~ speculating trip in to Affo.

This was when I was at Oxford I had intended going, but when I started for L. I dropped him a card & told him I should have to give it up for the present. I wish you were acquainted with his wife I think she is a nice woman. Did you meet her while in Paris? I think she is as clever as James Heavens wife. Well I did not get to go & I may not get to go to Madag if not I will be in L. by the first of Dec. In our trip the boys seemed to have a good time, as for myself I was quite sober, & did not enjoy the trip very extensively.

I called at Archibald's coming back & stopped a few moments, yes another or two did not have till nearly 12 O'Clock we went to stay for dinner, if of course we did not & I guess she thinks as you said you did "That it was not good enough" - Every time I meet with her I think more & more of her, would you care if I should fall in love with her? I think I would come as near to it as any

Why here is an other page of white paper what shall I do with it? I have told you more than I know full well. We have a S. L. C. Carpenter teaching school here I have not seen him yet Why just imagine convinced here to teach school in Dingle Hill We are getting quite moved here. - I will think that will soon have an academy, and become a good place in Ben Lake - Here I am at the bottom - I will have to say Good Night
Ever yours
Love
Will.

Just a little bit tired to night. May think of enough to fill this sheet - The pictures I inclose. What do you think of it? Shall I send any of them to my ladies friends? Have you heard from M. D. yet? Did you say any thing to J. L. about membership of joining the church?
Yes! George had another letter from Edith since I was down? Shall I ask you any more questions this time? In yours next tell me all + a little more. O yes I want you to tell me what you are going to do with the dead accounting to 2 Thos. 1: 7, 8 What kind of death do you term it Can they be resurrected again or not? What kind of punishment will they have to endure + how long I have no bible here + I cant find what I want - to tell you so will have to wait till another time

I am afraid I will not make as good a woman as I should but I'll try + see all things as near right as I can - What do you think Mark + John will think when I tell them I have come to join the church

They will think I did it - because I could not get you with out as many others will

Well the die is cast I shall ever be a widow - + always your lover but may be your husband. The bars are large now than ever before - seemingly - I feel at times just as if as can be Why + what is the reason I cant tell Well the move is leaving me for writing so I will quit - I think it time I can hear you say. He has never written such a message letter before. It must be getting queer or something I don't like the matter with
