

and broke his heart - nearly
- . Mr D. has gone north to Eagle Rock or some where up that way I do not expect to see him till
I get back to Coche
It will be to Cole for you to answer this.
As I will be about leaving here when you get this.

Trusting I will see you, which I course doubt. I am
Ever yours
J. Smith

I. H. Charter Dec 13th 84

My Dear friend Nora I received your letter of the 17th ult: in the course of trade and should have written sooner. but I have been on the move ever since. So much so that I have seen even my fair correspondence since I read it. but your the meeting you less must be later junction than a letter would have done I slept in the mountain the night after I saw you and the next night I was here I have not yet been home but am going today. I am nearly ready now to leave

For long as far that as the Jesus may be. I will be in Logan again in less than one week. and will spend one week or such a matter in Cache Valley then south I get know not where.

Many thanks for the flower the little paper that the young lady it is a sweet little gift as is duly appreciated your description of the earth - quote and unquote of your leaving lines is fine it is truly Sara Crockett.

No I think you need not be discouraged I think you are not in a wrong position. I think you are home to the school room. as I think you any other place you may occupy I trust the school room may not be your place many years.

Copper. you go to school house. That there is a place I think you would grace even more. It is very hard not doubt to deal with stupid children.

I have seen but little of you I guess since I wrote. Cor. but I have learned that some of the people are perfectly dropped up in their lives teacher unfortunately it is some what true but little of me God do as can do nothing He tells some pitiful stories about how his wife in Logan deserted him took the children