Ex-Portland Couple Listed Among Rescued at Manila

Two former Portland residents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eugene Rice, are among prisoners liberated from Santo Tomas prison in Manila, according to word received here. Cablegrams described them as safe and their health as fair.

Mrs. Rice is the former Florence (Peggy) Brimble of Portland and is the sister of Vern Brimble, 904 S. E. 20th avenue, and Mrs. C. W. Coons, 733 N. E. Prescott street.

Rice had a Franklin car agency here for 12 years before he went to Manila in 1930. He was a salesman of automobile accessories there. A cousin, Mrs. W. P. McClure, lives at 305 S. W. Montgomery street.

A partial list of military personnel liberated from Japanese prison camps in the Philippines was released by the war department Wednesday and contained the names of the following residents of the Pacific northwest:
