My Dear Girl.

Got your last letter also the pillow slips. Thanks for them. Just took the rag off I had on when you were here. As so dirty & the sheets the same. Norma Washes tomorrow

She gave me two just-below yours come now I have 5 - in all I well supplied?
Sox the same were one on my right-foot & the other goes bare, am wearing the black one you put on when you were here. They are more Holy than rickous!

Well the latest news is Mrs Nelson died since you were here just a few day ago. Enemia I think was the cause Mr. told me she was getting better & was at the mountain in Coahuila with a Dr. friend of theirs. But the turn can't she pass on have The particulars a bout - how she died Well we have got to haying & in full blast now. just got first crop of lucern in Bunch. Men from Gen. tow are stacking. Want to finish by Sep. first. My job is sharpening the knives M. D. & Jean are mowing & W. C. is bossing job. so we are starting out. Hopes all goes well

Look like we might have a good Mo. if we do it - will not be so bad Every one lost most of the hay cut in July. This year is so bad I cant own. so will quit -

Love as ever

Will
