My Dearest:

Get your letter last night but saying is begun and as I have my hands full my letters will not be very long for a while, am discarding all correspondence till I am thru. So do not expect me to be so very prompt. I find I must be on the job. if I get any kind results & I must make a winning. It is hard to get back in the old harness & down to the same old grind I did & could start 30 yrs ago.

But I am here and stuck & I mean stuck. In day gone by I could irrigate & hay & get tired but a rest over night would up an at it the next day. But not so now if am tired at night am still tired next morning. But that matter out. The grind goes on. The object in those days was different from now. There was a future objective, which has partly failed & it is an obligation to pay bills and may not be done so easily as the other was. It seems that. So it seems to me & a job well begun is half done. This one is not so well begun, and it look harder to me.

Well I have been irrigating the lot today and from has been helping me, and tomorrow

If all well 2 machines start-mowing the biggest & best crop of hay Arcadia has ever produced. And all I can do is go out in the morning & set in my Pudge Jumper (Ford) and I watch all day & direct the work and it is no easy job. & that is what I mean.

Well I am sorry you cannot come to Bk. but I guess it is best that you do not attempt it. You should see the old place after the effort I have made to right it. But don't try it if it is a bad move. We have lived thru a lot of disappointments and of course we can go thru this one. I believe Bill & Dug. will pull you thru OK, and you are mighty lucky to have them on the job. so I feel good to think are there and sure feel it will come out all right. All the 4 bed spreads B. sent for me to give to the girls. Mamie Mable & Norma & one for me, am to have first choice The yellow one & the other 3 of bright colors for them me. They are very nice. They should write you & tell you all about them.

Everything seems going all right as far as I know. Take the best care of you self & you will come out OK. In my love all the folks I sure would like to see you Hope you have a nice time & enjoy every minute of your stay. P.S. to O quit write this in a hurry Love as ever Will
