

Baguio, P.I.

April 5, 1941

Dear Grandma Ream,

How are you? We all here are fine.

What do you think of the international affairs? I think there pretty tough for every country but U. S. A. With her man-power she could easily drown out Japan, who is tired out, an Germany, who is taking a beating. There are quite a few Japs in Cebu, Davao City and in the other southern islands. They are being closely watched.

I got a letter from Hazel Lawton, for the first time, I never even heard of her before. It was lucky we ③ have a half Arabian colt but when the ~~colt~~ colt had six or five more months to go, she slipped in the road and killed it. About a week later it was born dead.

Aunt Helga and her family now live upstairs. Aunt Helga has a bad cold but it is going away with the nice Baguio climate.

Baguio is very nice until the rainy season comes along. It'll rain for days and days without a stop. Grandma Johnson came over here when we had a rain that lasted three weeks.

Love,
Nora

② were both about the same age.

We are now starting our Easter vacation. Brent gives a bit longer vacations because it has school on Saturdays.

We now are raising chickens the baby ought to start laying eggs now they are more than six months old. We now have a turkey we keep in the chicken house at night.

In the daytime one of our old hens keeps ~~at~~ chasing her around. She bites the turkey ~~you~~ who yelps and runs and doesn't make any attempt to protect herself.

Did you hear about Silver? She was going to

Mrs. W. D. Beam
929 Gaviota Ave.
Long Beach
California
U. S. A.

1941

Nora Dean
Baguio, P. I.