Dear sister - how I will try and write you a few lines today as I am not in school I dismissed for the week this morning on account of the cold

There is a great number of glasses broken in the windows and the glass would just pour in Well this leaves me well and I hope that it will find you the same.

I commenced school on the first of October with only twenty pupils so you see that I have a nice time I let school out at three in the afternoon.

I say where is Will I enquired and found that he was not at home

Well I haven't any thing to write about that would interest you so I will have to quit

Give my love to Lydia and the folks Write soon to your loving brother Will
