

17 Dec 1893

Nora → Will in the East.
graded cheese
for childrens shoes
at Bueyones Store

Wingate Dec. 17th 1893.
Sunday before daylight -
At Home.

Dear Will - while the children are all asleep I will try and write you. We are all well - I suppose that is the first & most important point to you. Every thing seems to be going along all right here at home. The day you left it snowed seven inches but we did not think the roads hardly good enough to bring a cord of wood from M - so Eph got a small load of willows. The weather is quite cold now. freezes hard. The evening of the day you left Stella gave birth to a little girl; it lived several hours - but moaned afternoon & sent to Miller to every breath. I was not up there tomorrow.

I had been up & gone home - so We are all very homesome without I went up the next morning to you. I hope you are having a see how she was. I made the pleasant trip. I guess you will burial clothes for it & then I be home, to your native home, went to M - with A. B. L. instead before this letter gets there. of taking a team. They buried Fabian & Lee are always thinking the baby Sat. Stella was quite papas coming. They talk a sick the second night. great deal about you. I wish

I took down some cheese to we were with you.

Burgoyne's store & got the children Give my Love to all the folks. each a good pair of shoes. when I will post this tomorrow as I go again I think I will have I may write some more in it to get me some felt shoes - they if I think of any thing else have them there. you would like to know.

I expected sure to get a card The children join me in from you yesterday but I was sending Love & kisses to you.

disappointed. So I hardly know Hoping to hear from you what to do, I don't know whether soon I am still it is too late to ship to Miller or Your not. I think I will dress ten this Nora