Miss A. G. Brackett

Dear Friend Anna

I was too sleepy to write you last night - after riding all day so will send you this note today. I am well as can be expected after working so hard. I think from what I can learn I will have no trouble in getting if some men tell me there will be no polygamy case to be tried before our jury if not I shall stay for I would like to be one in that case I know I would earn enough

to pay me for my time Don't give yourself
any trouble in regards to it I feel that all is going to end well

I am in a hurry to be off as I have quite a ways to ride I am going on horse back by way of Ft. Hall will stop there tomorrow night & write you from there until then wait with patience I know you are a patient girl & a good one I think well of you Will though all I thus speak ill of him

I am ever your True Friend
Will.
