

Will be in Logan as soon as I return and that will be as soon as I can. Christians may find something here.
I had a letter from Edith the same day. She asked me a very queer question - I was
str. Was George Crockett your sister in Bristol? Can you answer it? Haven't written yet. What shall I tell her sister by proxy or not?
Cousin I'll tell her he is your
bro. Pleased to learn that & Emma still write. Would like to read her letters, can you tell me all she said?
Very much obliged have a nerve to take the time to write me that belongs to Mr. E.K.

Dear friend
Yours bearing date the 10 at hand and read "Oakes" to say that I was glad for I was very. - Oakes must not enjoy Mr. Pickers company very much. I believe I should not be quite so dumb if I were he. Amusement for thought - Reflecting I find I might <sup>be</sup> standing in the same light for him to view. Will say nothing more about Mr. E.K. - About my photos one has gone

all ready and you are at liberty to do as you like about yours. If you have promised Mr. Aff &
E. R. one do not break your word. I have no more promises out that I know of and shall not promise any more. You need not be governed by my actions.
If you have a gentleman friend you wish to have your picture, why give it to him; I have never taken any liberty; that I would not grant to you even if it cost me ever so much. — You said you would like to see me had it worse than I would you, I can assure you. But it will be some time before we will meet. I am a paid

A gentleman East wanted me to go North & settle up some business for him. Got his letter yes today. The same time as I got yours. He requested me to answer. By return mail I wrote a note & requested that he would wait a day for me to come.
I have answered & consented to go, just sent the letter a few moments ago. I am first to go to Peabody then from there to Blackfoot & Eagle Rock & Haily
Pitcher. Believe I intend going on horse back if it does not grow to much.
Wish you had my watch as I do not want to carry it on the trip. but don't know how to get it to you.

Since I sent you a book last night by express and forgot to prepay express you may find it and get the book. Will you? I would like to have heard how you were getting along with your school and German. Why don't you say something about your little Dutchman? I have been looking for something in every letter. Suppose you are doing well & will be able to talk German fluently when you meet Nettie. By the way, have not heard from her for a long time, must be something wrong. Well I have covered us with paper as you did. If I have not said as much. Mr. R. H. Smith came out and said a letter to his wife in Ogden the other day when I gave by the school house. I thought she was up here when I wrote you before. He is a good looking man would be called by the majority of people. Supper ready and prudence told him I had written enough for this time. I never like the idea of sending a half sheet blank but it seems to be the style of late so not to step over this late state rule.

I certainly must quit.

This leaves me well but I hope it finds you better. My wife J. B. the day in P. can think of plenty to say but where is the paper. Supper waiting. Good Night Ever, Will.
