My dear Friend
I received your truly welcome letter came to hand about a week ago & I was very much pleased to hear from you once more & also to hear that you enjoyed your visit & had a pleasant journey home I looked very anxious for a letter for a little for some time & I began to think that you was sick or some thing was the matter for you are so much better than I am to answer letters but they are all ways very acceptable I have been very busy since receiving your letter We have been moving to a house about half a block East & a half South to a larger house & is so much nicer It is a Summer House & four rooms & Alice has some half & I have the other half & we have glorious times together you say you haven't ^{had} very cold winter up there since comprance we have had considerable rain untill this week it as been very storm this last three days it as seemed as warm to us as mid summer I was just saying to Alice to day I would like very much to be up there sitting under them large trees with my feet in the ~~and~~ river you wouldn't be surprisid if you see us up there any time I was very sorry to hear of your sisters sickness but glad to hear that she is all wite again you alke what I thought about the rings I dident know what to think at first I dident notice it untill I was washing Breakfast dishes I was sorry but of course we hope to meet before long again & I will take the best of care of yours every time I look at it I think of you & I am sure I dont worry about mine.

The day after you went home Aunt Mary & of course Uncle Levi came & spent the day with me also ma came down & she had a pleasant time But she tried our best to get Uncle Levi to go some place without Aunt Mary but that was impossible.

I got the samples we sent for but nothing I sent for there was only two pieces of black velvet & the rest was silks that would not wash nor they never sent me catalogue I was very much disapoin

Well My Dear you must excuse writing it is the hardest task I have & I get worse insid of better
