Before breakfast
My dear Nora & Crockett

Dear friend
I should think you were getting tired of so many letters from me. (Perhaps you are) but I can't resist the temptation of writing this morning. When I commenced I had intended writing to another person but before I was aware your name had struck the sheet so I thought you was the person I should write to. Yesterday was the first day for me in this part of the valley. I had very good luck considering the disadvantages I had to contend with. If I had as good luck the remaining days of this week I will be satisfied.

I hardly look for that ~~over~~ the fourth as most of the people will be having a ~~bit~~ rest. (That is just about what it will be) for there is nothing young one here that I know of. By that way, you are going to have a good time in Logan from the account I see in the Journal.
Allow me to congratulate you for the honor (as it only I don't know) bestowed on you as God's Gift.
A very good choice, one I should have made myself if I should have been choosing. I'm sorry I can't be there to enjoy the day. I will be there in stead.
He is to start to day from the ranch. Weather is very warm & is hot, very hot. It must be the same in Cache if it is, don't love Es. so much for I want you to have a large quantity for me when I come down. Love stored away this weather is sure to spoil if bothered much, Give him a good share but save the largest for me (I can't hear you say he is a hoax) confess it. Who could help being after enjoying a kiss from your sweet lips. I can hear you think. Well I've turned the table He's getting jealous. Wont I be a good time now, and many more such ideas I can imagine is running through your mind. Am I right?

Wont be uneasy now but have a good time there may be trouble in store, yet in the future for enough for both of us, so have a good ^{time} while you may I now close this note with a hard work work before me Hope it is quite different with you Yours as ever W. L. K.
