

of them filled the one looked for Jessies was real jolly & I let you see them if you wish I thought once of sending them to you & changed my mind. They all requested me to write immediately but you I consider most in ^{part} I did not get in time to come back to Hyrum or I should have been there. Hope you had a good time. Stopped with Mark & Josie when I was in Ogden I wish you could see them I think them so nice they were asking a bout you & I would send Emmas letter down & let you see it but its need some exptimate which I can give when I see you better than writing it Oh! I have so much to tell you & my papers out so here I quit Good Bye Deares

My dear friend Seeing it is very late to night & I cant write you a very long letter I will make it as consice as possible (I or I dont believe you intend to write till you get a letter from me)

Well we got home all allright after a long time nothing happened of import on our way. Oh yes. I had the pleasure of meeting two old acquaintances from Ogden one was Miss H. Jones & the other Mrs Johnson

They passed us in the canyon near Meadowville They were coming up here for an out - were real pleased to see me & I then - I have not paper and would tell you of some of our mishaps on our way. By the way we meeted with a party the next day this side of M - It was a Cache valley crowd on their way from Soda Shall I tell you who they were? It was Mr Beddin Lancton & Mr Braige Barber & several other young fellows I have forgotten their names with so many young ladies
The two Miss Mackab two Miss Moreheads Miss Lancton & others I have forgotten the names ^{also} it matters not

When I got to St Charles I expected a letter from you but when I got my mail, not one letter from Aeria There was one from almost all of my other correspondants & not one from one from whome I looked for most We were so busy I did not get to open any of the - till I started for the ranch & turned the horses out to graze down where we were boating. Then I lie down in the shade of the wagon & began to peruse the - The first pencil was from Alace from To rise a very plaintive one. the next was Jessies then as follows Netties Emma & Ediths They were all very good but none
