Dear Friend

Recd. your welcome news just before starting and not having time to answer I have put it off till now, but very long. I was glad to hear from you, but what a short letter. It makes me think that you must be very tired writing me or you are very much over-tired. Still I can say it was very interesting and I was well pleased with it, only regretting that it was so short. I did not get off to Eagle Rock as soon as I had intended.

I will be in Logan on Christmas if I do not have bad luck. I shall have to go to Hailey & Ketchikan. We have very nice weather here & prospect to day for more & a continuance of this. I am well excepting a very bad cold had a little from Edmund's husband They are not well. Still talking of coming West just How are the times in L?
Any excitement ~~at~~?
When you get this you may write me at Hailey or I will not be lonesome on my return I shall not look for any other letters but yours. Don't fail for I shall look for one Did you see G. L. this time while he was in L.

Have you recd. the Cyclopedia yet? ^{and how} do you like it? — Had a long & lonesome trip yesterday. Dook for the same be a long to spice the long hours, but it would not be very agreeable, on your part. I am afraid Mr E. R. and your little Dutchman would be more easily entertained That is with less inconvenience to you. I have never found a trip yet wholly destitute of some pleasure. I don't know what will turn up on this one — Breakfast is ready & I have told you all I know & with a bad pen. I don't think you can read it.
If not keep till I come & I will read it for you.
