Dear Nora

Why do you not write to your sick and lonesome Mother I have never had a line from you since that letter you finished in bed the next day after your babe was born I am very anxious to know how you are getting along if you cannot write Will can if you ask him I think he might write once in a while anyway It is almost impossible for me to write for I am so stiff and lame I think my rheumatism has turned into dropsy I cannot get around much for my feet and legs are swollen so badly that I cannot stand long on my feet at a time when I wash the dishes I have to sit down to do it then I cannot wring out the dish cloth for my hands ar so stiff that I cannot shut them tight I have to walk with a cane when I go to the door so as to steady myself and keep from falling do you not think that I am a poor old forlorn creature and do you not think that you ought to write to me a little oftener than you do It seems as though you did not care for me wheather I was sick or not I think if I had a Mother I should want to know how she was getting along and let her know how I was getting along especially if I had a young babe I would try and relieve her anxiety a little if I could John and Roxie are staying with me now for I cannot stay alone for I am so very nervous since Aunt Mary died

I suppose that you got the card telling of her death this is the third time that we have written to you since we got your letter I sent it to S<sup>r</sup> and she had to cry over it she said you was very brave if it had been her she would have been scared to death

you must excuse if I do not write much for my hands and back hurts me so that I will have to quit with love and kisses to you all please write soon to your loving Mother
