who are perfect little men, the youngest ten yrs. I should be so glad to have you visit me in my home. My husband talks of spending a winter in Cuba, at no distant time and, if so I will try to see you, and we may realize our plans to see the park, yet, I too am sorry you took the winter school. I am really afraid you have not been able to finish it but hope your health is better than it was. I am still blessed with almost perfect health.

Venus is well and always expresses love & interest, & wishes to be remembered to you. With a sincere wish that I may hear from you very soon, I am

Yours truly,
Jessie Rose Myers,

Benedict Feb.

Feb. 18th 1859

Mrs Nova C. Ream.

My dear friend; It has been much longer since I received your letter, than I thought it would be before I found an opportunity of answering. And although many things have prevented me from writing, nothing has kept me from thinking very often of you.

I suppose I must begin at the first and tell you of my conduct this winter. But I scarcely know how to write you of it when I am the subject.
And if it is awkwardly done, you will please excuse it on the plea of embarrassment.

I was married Dec. 25- to a gentle -men living near Benedict.

And although he has been married before and has four boys: he was married very young and is now in the prime of life, and I am very happy in my new home.

But what I most want to tell you of was the little trip we took to Denver & vicinity, which in itself was not great but to me was much. for I saw for the first time your grand old Rockies. Oh how I can't tell you how I felt, but it isn't necessary for you know. I could only look in silence the first time, while the tears ^{crowded} out of my eyes and rolled down ward. Surely one realizes that God is very dear on viewing such scenery. We went out to George town through Clear creek canyon, & then down to Pueblo.

Both trips were grand. I will not attempt to enter into details for you know only too well how much more one can feel and appreciate those things, than they are able to express.

But just think dear girl, how much you have enjoyed and then you will fully understand me.

We came back after a short absence and I took up my new relations with, I must say, some misgiving on account of my husband's family.

But he appreciates fully my position and inexperience & makes it much easier for me. Our boys too (for-tunately for me) seem to think a great deal of me, and as I have had considerable experience with children I anticipate no troubles with these little fellow
