

Aug., 1942

Dear Helen May,

Alan has written you a letter. He dictated it to me. We are going to write you often. We had our sun baths in the bedroom last night. My temperature was normal. Daddy says he thinks I am getting well. Last night I collected three books in the library to read. We all miss you and wish you were here. I hope you will write to me often. It is fun to receive letters.

Alan has stayed in my bed all morning. We even had breakfast together. I have read to him till my throat felt soze. So I thought we should write to you. You thinks so too, I bet.

Please write soon. Love
Susan

Faint, illegible handwriting on the top section of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

Faint, illegible handwriting on the middle section of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

Faint, illegible handwriting on the bottom section of the page, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.

Aug 1, 1942

Dear Helen May,

Did you like your necklace? I made it specially for you. Susan had to finish it but you don't mind do you? Susan's writing this letter for me, but I tell her what to write. Susan read to me all this morning. I got to stay in her bed with her all morning. This morning we got to have orange juice. I have got a flea, and so has Susan. Russell has thrown things on the floor. My temperature last night was a hundred and two tenths rectally. Susan's was normal. Last night we went in the bedroom to have our sunbaths. We took our temperatures there too. It sure was fun.

With lots of mischief
love

Alan

white collar

yellow dress

Man-Coat

pink shoes

black shoes

finger gloves

key to R