My Dear Wesley - I am glad to know you reached your destination in safety and found every thing all right. I hope you do get along so well that you can graduate this year.

Three days after you left I was called to Logan on account of Aunt Susie's death. She had a stroke of paralysis like she did the other time. It was a very beautiful, but sad funeral. I never saw so many beautiful flowers in my life. The bank closed and many seemed to mourn. A great many of her relatives as well as ours were there. I got back Sunday evening - On the trip I took a severe cold and have been about sick ever since. I am better to day but for three days the pain in my head was something fierce; I was abed a part of each day.

Lee intends going to Pocatello Sunday morning.
Mitchel and Ida have written that they are getting along all right. It looks like fall here. We have had some cold nights since you were here. We have not got the Telluride check yet. But I suppose it will come all right. Thomas Sneddon was in town yesterday - Papa went down. I think he will take our oats - I don't know the price.

Mamie was up day before yesterday and took the picture of this geese. as the other one was not good. I will send your tennis shoes by mail.

Link expects to go back to N. C. soon for his wife.

I must quit for this time - when you write tell me where you board and all about every thing.

Write soon to

Your Loving Mamma
N. E. C. Peam.
