Moscow Ida.

Dear Wesley - I will just write a little in Papa's letter - He is waiting to take it to the post office so I will not write much.

We are all getting along all right. It looks like mid winter - It is cold and good sleighing. Papa is hauling to fix the head-gates. There is always lots to be done. He expects Link's brother-in-law in about two weeks to start work. I hope he proves a good worker and a decent fellow.

The children all seem to be getting along nicely at school. There don't seem to be much kick this year about the schools.

You must be having to work pretty hard in school this year. I hope you make it all right. I think your markings were very good. I guess you will be glad to be through.

I think like Papa does if you could get a pretty good job in the line of your studies while you are fresh from school - you will have a better chance than as if you got rusty in it before you have the practice - then after you are established in that line a year or two wont make so much difference and you would be in a better shape to make money out of it.

However papa says do as you think best. I see your name in the school paper occasionally.

I must quit for this time - I hope you are well. Write soon.

yours lovingly
H. E. C. Ryan.
