

Dear Kudy.

I am so happy you are in a play and I wouldn't miss it for anything in the world.

The only reason I wanted you to meet me was because I thought your school was out. You must not come even if the weather is good. I will be busy with the dentist anyway.

We never heard about my bag. Mrs Enholm is called to the police dept. every once in a while to try and identify the suspect by a picture. It seems there is a lot of petty house thieving around these parts -

I can hardly wait to see you in the play and hear the harm. It must keep you busy practicing. What time do you have to "bum" the streets and what do you do at those times. I can hardly wait until Christmas. Tell all the folks not to get any special presents because I am not getting any.

It is all I can do to get myself and Lee there. I'll try to bring a few nuts and things like that.
I spent all summer trying to dry figs so you will have to try some to please me. I resorted to ultraviolet light to keep the mould off.

Lee seems busy at school I hardly ever see him I have my taste sharpened to that pheasant you promised and the "white Christmas"

Lots of love to all your mom -
