To Mom & Fisher.

Dear Mammie, and Wesley, and Family,

Thanks for your kind Christmas Greetings and letter, and regards for my sisters. They are both doing pretty well, though Mae's condition is taking quite a long time to better. And me, I bumped my leg several times and strained my knee, so I can hardly walk. It seems to have settled there.

We are having sessions with the dentist and the optometrist, but the work is finished. We are now waiting for our glasses which will be ready before Christmas I hope.

All the time we were at home, we visited or called Aunt Mabel on the phone ^{every day,} She would take her out at times, and had her over to our place with the ladies: Sig, Aunt Norma etc.
She would often cry as you said and we would try to cheer her. That day we left was very early and as we had been to her place several nights before Kenneth would not let me disturb her. I have written her at times, but she doesn't answer, though she does write and tend to her business matters. I feel so sorry for Mabel and wish I could do something. I never like to say "Good bye."

It's lovely and sunny today. We were going up to Marlin's Ranch, but decided against it. All of us spent Thanksgiving week end up there, in the beautiful Pines. The cottage is high up and we can look over thousands of various kinds of trees.

Have a Merry Christmas with your dear ones.

Love to all,

Ruth, Kenneth and Edward
